++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rather cloudy with some patchy rain in the north.

Today:
It will be generally cloudy through Saturday morning, with some patchy rain and drizzle across Cumbria. Largely dry elsewhere, with the best of any sunny spells in the south. Becoming breezy along the coast in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
A few clear spells at first tonight, but clouding over later as outbreaks of rain spread from west, bringing a wet end to the night for many. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Sunday:
Cloudy skies and spells of rain for most through Sunday morning, however there will be some drier and brighter interludes in the afternoon, especially across the south. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Changeable conditions will prevail over the next few days with spells of wet and windy weather interspersed by some drier interludes. Generally mild by day and night.
